Got tomorrowsies off, so, come on over, 'kay?

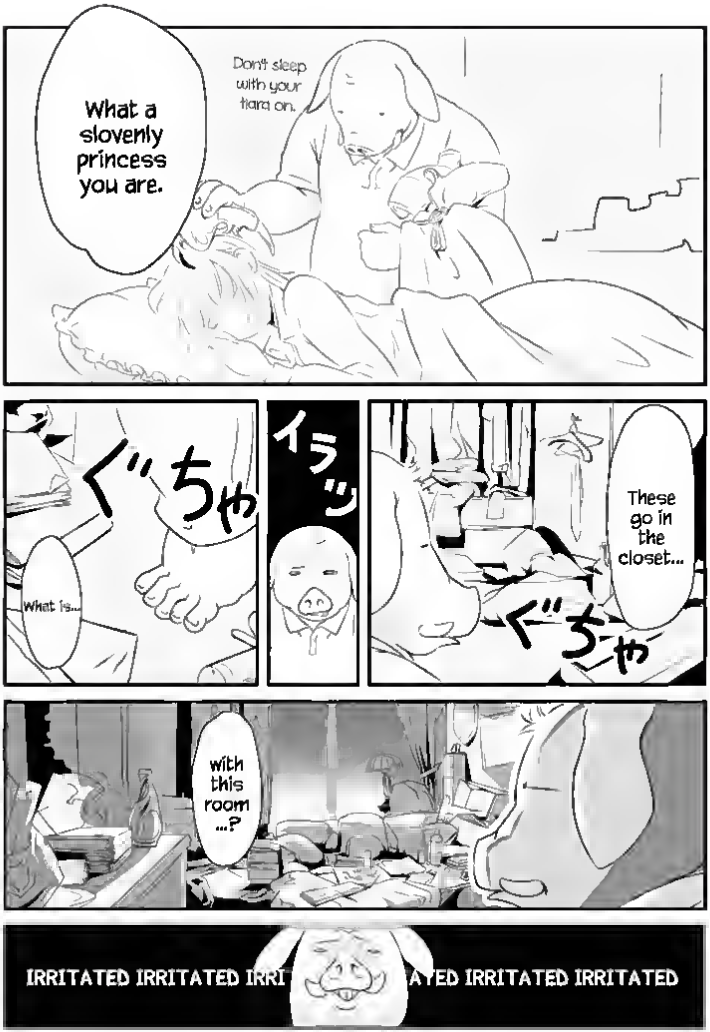
Okay, okay, I get it. Tone it down, please.
Now
Can't have it too messy That's no good
Oh, and since you're staying over, can you clean my place up?
That's fine, but can you not make me your house-keeper?



What a slovenly princess you are.
Don't sleep with your tiara on.

Gah! Clean your room a little! You sorry excuse of a Princess!
Fold up your clothes after you take them off!
Don't throw your magazines and paper onto the floor!
And there's dust piling up in every corner of the room! UNBELIEVABLE!!

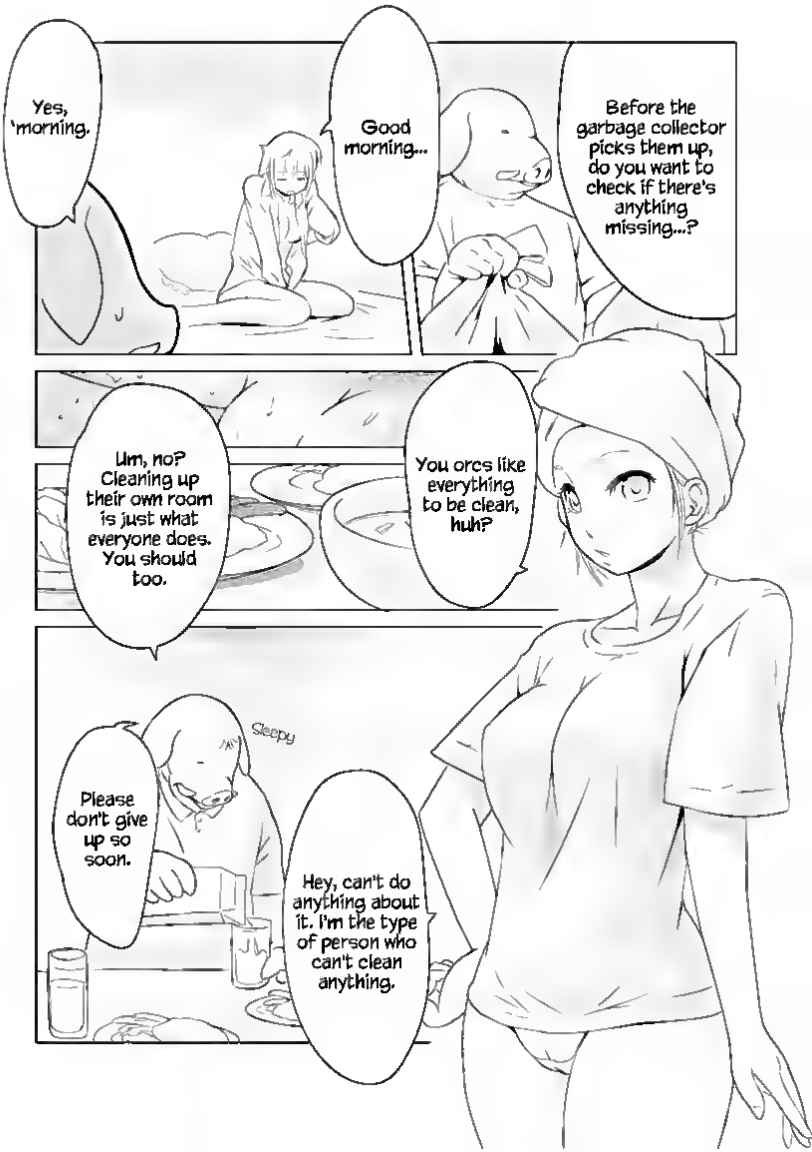
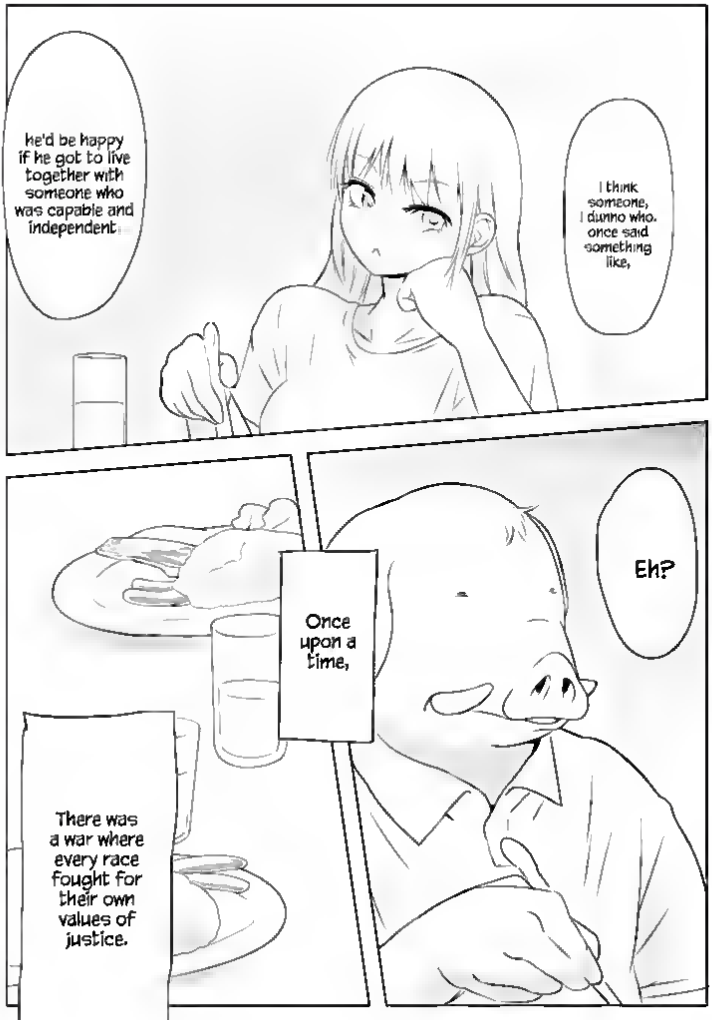
Dammit! There's not enough plastic bags!

Are you awake?
I've taken the liberty of taking care of your room. (hehe)

The room's clean.



Yes, 'morning.
Good morning...
Before the garbage collector picks them up, do you want to check if there's anything missing...?
Um, no? Cleaning up their own room is just what everyone does. You should too.
You orcs like everything to be clean, huh?
Sleepy
Please don't give up so soon.
Hey, can't do anything about it. I'm the type of person who can't clean anything.



I think someone, I dunno who, once said something like, he'd be happy if he got to live together with someone who was capable and independent.
Eh?
Once upon a time,
There was a war where every race fought for their own values of justice.

Resting your cheek on your hand is bad manners.
Heheh.

But right now, it doesn't matter
